Clinician Scholarship Applicant Criteria and Form

NVPCA is committed to strengthening Nevada’s network of health center providers. Supporting this community of professionals committed to serving Nevadans regardless of ability to pay is an investment to improve provider and patient satisfaction while meeting each health center’s goal of excellence. As a co-sponsor and host of the 2022 Region IX Clinical Excellence & Leadership Conference, NVPCA knows this conference’s educational content combined with an opportunity to make helpful connections will help you, your team, and organization thrive.

The Nevada Primary Care Association, the California Primary Care Association, and the Western Clinicians Network invite you to attend the Region IX Clinical Excellence Conference. This multi-day event brings together healthcare leaders from across the region to focus on health center clinical and management teams with the goals of improving overall efficiency and effectiveness in care delivery and supporting clinical leaders.

Who should attend? Clinicians, Chief Medical Officers, Medical Directors, Dental Directors, CEOs/Executive Directors, State and Regional Primary Care partners, health center Board Members, and other management positions involved with community or tribal health centers.

To reap the benefits of this year's event, please register here. If you are eligible and agree to the scholarship registration terms, and would like financial support for registration ($850), please apply for a scholarship (below).

Registration Scholarship Eligibility: Applicant must be a clinical leader, or emerging clinical leader, at the time of the conference, employed by an FQHC or tribal health center. The FQHC or tribal health center must be an NVPCA member in good standing at the time of application.

Terms: Applicant must agree to the following:

- Applicant must comply with conference registration requirements, including proof of covid vaccination.
- NVPCA is not responsible for costs associated with housing, transportation, food, or incidentals.
- If awarded a scholarship, the award recipient agrees to participate in the entire conference.
- Awards will be decided on a first-come, first-serve basis with a limit of two recipients per member in good standing. Decisions will be made within five business days. And,
- Award recipients will register themselves for the conference AFTER receiving a discount code from NVPCA.
