Oscar Delgado
CEO Community Health Alliance

Oscar Delgado is on a mission to build better, more equitable communities in northern Nevada. He does so through his many community and nonprofit responsibilities. Delgado obtained a Master's in social work and urban and regional planning from the University of Michigan in 2010. In 2012, Delgado ran and was elected to represent Reno's Ward 3 and he was reelected in 2016 and again in 2020. He's also been a part of connecting multicultural communities, government entities and nonprofit organizations. This career path led him to Community Health Alliance where he currently works as CEO. Community Health Alliance is an organization that provides comprehensive medical and dental services to a range of patients including the uninsured and underinsured. He began with the organization as director of community relations eventually transitioning to chief strategy officer and taking on the role of CEO in October 2019. As head of Community Health Alliance, Delgado has overseen incredible change through the pandemic and helped it grow despite those challenges.
