Oscar Delgado

CEO Community Health Alliance

Oscar Delgado is a Nevada native and seasoned executive with nearly a decade of health care leadership experience. As President and CEO of Community Health Alliance (CHA) — one of Northern Nevada's leading health care systems — he leads more than 330 medical and administrative professionals committed to delivering high-quality, patient-centered care.

Under Oscar's leadership, CHA provides comprehensive services to more than 37,000 patients each year through five health centers and four mobile medical and dental units. Its integrated service model includes primary care, dental, behavioral health, pharmacy, and WIC. His strategic focus on operational excellence, organizational growth, and long-term sustainability ensures that the community has reliable access to essential health care.

In addition to his role at CHA, Oscar served for a decade as a Reno City Councilmember for Ward 3, championing initiatives that strengthened community health, safety, and engagement. This dual experience in public policy and health care delivery has shaped a unique leadership perspective that continues to benefit Reno residents.

Oscar holds dual master's degrees in Social Work and Urban & Regional Planning from the University of Michigan. His professional background spans health care and social service organizations, grounding his leadership in a deep understanding of community needs.
